Re: Support Letter for Reappointment of Michael Dionne to Conservation Commission

Dear Mayor Jean and City Councilors,

Mr. Michael Dionne's appointment to the Conservation Commission lapsed on January 02, 2014. Mr. Dionne is now seeking to be reappointed as a full member of the Conservation Commission.

Mr. Dionne is the Conservation Commission's Vice Chair and has been a devoted member since 2010. Although Mr. Dionne has a young family and is employed full time as a Marine Biologist at NH Fish and Game, his commitment to the Commission is strong -- a review of the Commission's attendance records and minutes illustrate this fact. Mr. Dionne is a unique member not only because of his professional experience, but also because he brings the perspective of a different, younger, generation to the Commission. It may also be reassuring for you to know that Mr. Dionne is a long term thinker and encourages the Commission to make decisions with the future in mind.

As the staff person who is the liaison between the Conservation Commission and other boards/City departments I fully support Mr. Dionne's reappointment, and encourage you to as well.

Sincerely,

Seth Creighton
Staff Planner
