In attendance: Sheila Colson, Paul Roberts, Art Jacobs, Chris Bowlen, Anne May, Rob Feeney, Jim Chambers and William Marshall.

Rob Feeney and William Marshall of Granite Disc Golf and volunteer designers/constructors of the Squamagonic course gave an overview of the process. They answered questions and gave Disc Golf 101 instructions. The group borrowed discs and played several of the holes, getting a feel for the course layout.

The first 9 holes are currently being played; the back 9 are rough cut and will be finished next spring. A clean up day is scheduled for October 11 to chip brush, remove refrigerators and do general clean up.
